

Number of INDOT Contracts Awarded Over the Past Five Years

Contract Breakdown: Preservation vs. Capital Improvements

Contracts awarded by INDOT can be broken down into two broad categories: preservation and capital improvements. Preservation contracts involve preserving the current infrastructure, i.e. rehabilitating or resurfacing roads and bridges. Capital improvements involve the construction of new pavement, bridges, interchanges or adding lanes onto existing routes.

